Weekday Mass in Lent on YouTube at 9.00am

These will be put out every morning in Lent unless a Funeral Mass is being celebrated. There are various routes to find this, but one way is to use the Parish Website:

www.musselburghcatholic.org

There you will find on the home page a link to The Parish Communities YouTube Channel. Click and follow.

You will also find a link to Readings for the day, again click and up comes the readings for Mass. An amazing facility.

If a funeral mass is being recorded, then that will be available as soon as possible after the funeral itself. If the funeral is not in Musselburgh, then I will still say a mass at 9.00am.

Stations of the Cross

Every Wednesday at 6.30pm

Again, there are various routes, but one is to follow the link found on the homepage of the Website.

Please pray for the sick: For those with Covid 19 and for June Fleming, Anne Marie Bevan, Colin Wills, The Graham Family, Jane Fairnie, Natalie Archibald, Edward Brown, Margaret Rodgers, John Toal, Laura Hepburn, Archie Herkes, Hugh Scott, Albert A Binnie, Helen Archibald, Paulina Nosal, Alice Najafian, James Valley, Jennifer Ross, Jamie Mitchell, Ann Dixon, Cathleen Young, Irene Burnett, Ann Marie Aitken, Mary Skelly, Jimmy Windram, Frances Loftus. Anniversaries: James Savage. FIRST SUNDAY IN LENT YEAR B

You raise the dead to life in the Spirit:

Kyrie Eleison

You bring pardon and peace to the broken in heart:

Christe Eleison

You make one by your Spirit the torn and divided:

Kyrie Eleison

FIRST READING A reading from the book of Genesis

God spoke to Noah and his sons, 'See, I establish my Covenant with you, and with your descendants after you, also with every living creature to be found with you, birds, cattle and every wild beast with you: everything that came out of the ark, everything that lives on the earth. I establish my Covenant with you: no thing of flesh shall be swept away again by the waters of the flood. There shall be no flood to destroy the earth again.'

God said, 'Here is the sign of the Covenant I make between myself and you and every living creature with you for all generations: I set my bow in the clouds and it shall be a sign of the Covenant between me and the earth. When I gather the clouds over the earth and the bow appears in the clouds, I will recall the Covenant between myself and you and every living creature of every kind. And so the waters shall never again become a flood to destroy all things of flesh.' The word of the Lord.

R. Your ways, Lord, are faithfulness and love for those who keep your covenant.

Lord, make me know your ways,

Lord, teach me your paths.

Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:

for you are God my saviour. R.

Remember your mercy, Lord and the love you have shown from of old.

In your love remember me, because of your goodness, O Lord. R.

The Lord is good and upright.

He shows the path to those who stray, he guides the humble in the right path; he teaches his way to the poor. R.

SECOND READING A reading from the first letter of St Peter

Christ himself, innocent though he was, died once for sins, died for the guilty, to lead us to God. In the body he was put to death, in the spirit he was raised to life, and, in the spirit, he went to preach to the spirits in prison. Now it was long ago, when Noah was still building that ark which saved only a small group of eight people 'by water', and when God was still waiting patiently, that these spirits refused to believe. That water is a type of the baptism which saves you now, and which is not the washing off of physical dirt but a pledge made to God from a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, who entered heaven and is at God's right hand, now that he has made the angels and Dominations and Powers his subjects. The word of the Lord.

R. Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

Man does not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.

R. Praise to you, O Christ, king of eternal glory!

GOSPEL A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The Spirit drove Jesus out into the wilderness and he remained there for forty days and was tempted by Satan. He was with the wild beasts, and the angels looked after him. After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. 'The time has come' he said 'and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News.' The Gospel of the Lord.

Lent 2021 The Way of the Cross

Lent Reflections Wednesdays 7.30pm on ZOOM

Wed 24th Feb: Jesus Falls

Wed 3rd Mar: Mary, Veronica & The Women

Wed 10th Mar: Simon, Joseph, John

Wed 17th Mar: Jesus' Passion & Death

The aims of these short reflections are simple. In 40 minutes -
To look at some of the Stations of the Cross in a more reflective way.
To use imaginative reading of a scripture passage to enter the story.
To take the thoughts, feelings, experiences encountered bringing this into prayer.
To have material that can be used in this way throughout the week.
To prepare us spiritually for Good Friday and Easter.

While I will facilitate Miriam McHardy has generously agreed to co-ordinate Zoom. I would be grateful if you were to register with Miriam as she will send you the Zoom invitation - miriam@mmchardy.org.uk
Even if you couldn't join us on Ash Wednesday you are still very welcome to join us on the 24th. Fr Basil
