Priests Retirement Fund Special Collection 9th June

The Aged & Infirm Clergy Fund of the Archdiocese provides the living costs and housing for our 24 retired priests. The special collections are one of the main sources of income for the fund. The next collection will be taken up Sunday 9th June 2019.

In 2018, the special collections, donations and investment income of the AICF were £204,129, increased by legacies of £85,000. The cost of providing the retirement allowances and housing was £363,153. The AICF fund held £1,086,000 as at 1 January 2018. In order to continue to pay allowances to the next generation of Priests as they retire, we need a bigger fund and new ideas and support to raise it, which are being actively worked on. To pay the current allowances requires annual income of around £370,000 (as at 2018). In order to match these allowances with income, the 2019 special collections need to raise twice as much as they did in 2018.

Please do consider what you can give to this collection and bring your donations on 9th June 2019. Please do also consider including a bequest to the AICF in your will. (The bequest should be to "the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund of the Archdiocese of St Andrews and Edinburgh" (Charity No SCO08540) and qualifies as a charitable bequest for Inheritance Tax purposes).

Our Priests retire at age 75, so they work longer than most other occupations. We all have a joint commitment to support them as they reach old age and are no longer supported by an individual Parish. Please pray for our retired priests, who have served us well and be as generous as you can.

Gift Aid envelopes are available. If you pay tax please gift aid your donation by completing one of the envelopes, with your offering inside.

Church Repairs

The costs of repairs to the church have been difficult estimate as only after the plaster is removed can the extent of the work be estimated. However, work begins on the Sacristy Ceiling this week and in the church as soon as possible after that. For safety reasons and to speed the work up we will again have to have weekday Mass and even Sunday Mass in the hall during that time. I will keep you informed. Fr B

Please pray for Deacon Gordon Graham who is recovering at home after an emergency heart operation. Deacon Gordon will be off for a month or so and I will visit him this Sunday
