Friday 19th Day of Prayer

For those who have Suffered Abuse.

Opening Prayer

Father, whose mercy has been revealed in the tenderness of your Son Jesus Christ
who said to his disciples:

"Suffer the little children to come unto me",
may your Church be a secure home
where all your children are brought closer to him.

May all those who have been abused be respected and compassionately accompanied, thereby receiving healing and restored dignity
by the balm of your grace.

Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

I will offer a second Mass on Friday with this intention as an act of reparation and praying for all who have been abused.

The Porch of the Parish House will be open for those who wish to leave donations for the Food Bank, Pick up a Newsletter etc.

They are now supplying more fresh food through new resources. Monetary donations also increased partly through the Scottish Ladies Open sponsoring the food bank and raised just under £27,000. The EL Food Bank is well supported and in a good financial situation while other food banks are struggling.

FIRST READING A reading from the book of Leviticus

The Lord said to Moses and Aaron, 'If a swelling or scab or shiny spot appears on a man's skin, a case of leprosy of the skin is to be suspected. The man must be taken to Aaron, the priest, or to one of the priests who are his sons.

'The man is leprous: he is unclean. The priest must declare him unclean; he is suffering from leprosy of the head. A man infected with leprosy must wear his clothing torn and his hair disordered; he must shield his upper lip and cry, "Unclean, unclean." As long as the disease lasts he must be unclean; and therefore he must live apart; he must live outside the camp.' The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM (Ps 31:1-2,5,11. R. v.7)

You are my refuge, O Lord;
you fill me with the joy of salvation.

Happy the man whose offence is forgiven,
whose sin is remitted.
O happy the man to whom the Lord
imputes no guilt, in whose spirit is no guile. R.

But now I have acknowledged my sins;
my guilt I did not hide.
I said: 'I will confess my offence to the Lord.'
And you, Lord have forgiven
the guilt of my sin. R.

Rejoice, rejoice in the Lord,
exult, you just!
O come, ring out your joy,
all you upright of heart. R.

SECOND READING A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians (10-31-11:1)

Whatever you eat, whatever you drink, whatever you do at all, do it for the glory of God. Never do anything offensive to anyone – to Jews or Greeks or to the Church of God; just as I try to be helpful to everyone at all times, not anxious for my own advantage but for the advantage of everybody else, so that they may be saved. Take me for your model, as I take Christ. The word of the Lord.

Alleluia, alleluia! May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our mind, so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

GOSPEL A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark (1:40-45)

A leper came to Jesus and pleaded on his knees. 'If you want to' he said, 'you can cure me.' Feeling sorry for him, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him. 'Of course I want to!' he said. 'Be cured!' And the leprosy left him at once and he was cured. Jesus immediately sent him away and sternly ordered him, 'Mind you say nothing to anyone, but go and show yourself to the priest, and make the offering for your healing prescribed by Moses as evidence of your recovery.' The man went away, but then started talking about it freely and telling the story everywhere, so that Jesus could no longer go openly into any town, but had to stay outside in places where nobody lived. Even so, people from all around would come to him. The Gospel of the Lord.

Hugh Rodgers RIP: I am sorry to have to announce the death of Hughie. He was a good man and a faithful and generous member of this community; supporting the parish and St Anne's in so many quiet ways. Please also pray for his family, especially his wife Margaret now resident in St Anne's. May he rest in God's peace and rise to God's glory. Amen
